THIS CITY GREET VISITORS TO SHOE PITCHERS' MEET

Mayor Spencer Robinson in Address of Welcome; Big Games Are Under Way

Glendale is host today to hundreds of visitors who gathered at 10 o'clock this forenoon on the high school athletic grounds for the first tournament held for the horseshoe pitchers of the state. On account of the threatening weather yesterday, the program was somewhat delayed this forenoon by the tardiness of several contestants from various horseshoe clubs in this section of the state, and by the large list of entries, the total now being fifty-three, or about twice as many as previously expected, which necessitates some changes in the schedule.

Mayor Spencer Robinson, after being introduced by W. H. Nicoles, secretary of the Glendale Horseshoe club and treasurer of the State Horseshoe Pitchers' association, delivered an address of welcome, telling the visitors the city of Glendale was open to them for the two day tournament. George E. Krimball of Long Beach, secretary of the state association, was then introduced by Mr. Nicoles, and responded, expressing the appreciation of the association for being guests of Glendale today and tomorrow, and concluded his remarks by outlining the rules of the tournament. Mayor Robinson then pitched the first shoe and the tournament was under way.

According to the newly revised schedule the game for high ringer scores is first on the program today. W. H. Nicoles and Secretary Krimball met at noon today and made further revisions in order to take care of all the entries for the tournament.

Big One for Today
The game booked for this afternoon is a fifty-point walking game for the championship of the state, there being several entries, from whom high scores are expected, among them being Gilman Hoyt, W. R. Bradford, G. M. E. Jensen of Long Beach; Billy Crick of Newark; G. L. Milligan of Redlands and D. H. Smith of Pasadena.

Guests who had registered at noon today were:
Long Beach—H. C. Thomas, William Beck, William Honer, J. H. Pearson, W. F. Reid, C. B. Thomas, Reed Gels, George Dickerson, E. C. Ford and W. A. Hoyt.
Los Angeles—H. H. Dunham, Gus Mignot, C. N. Normandy and W. V. Trahern.
Redlands—G. J. Milligan, F. S. Griffith.
Santa Ana—J. H. Hook.
Pomona—Z. Tisnerat.
South Park—W. J. Moor.

Here Is Program
The following program under the supervision of Secretary George E. (Continued on Page 14)

Let Contract for Retaining Walls for Large Hotel

The Ambrosini Hotel Company has just received estimates for the two retaining walls, 235 feet on Broadway and 229 feet on Glendale avenue. The bids were as follows:
The Rommel Construction Co., $6892; E. Schelling, $7000; Hjorth Construction Co., $4855; W. G. Boyd Construction Co., $4261.

The Boyd Construction Company bid being the lowest, contract was awarded to them and they will proceed at once. The contract for the foundation will be let in a very few days, it is stated by Anthony Ambrosini, who will supervise all the work. The Roy L. Kent Company architects will see that plans and specifications are carried out.

Additional Service on Southern Pacific Assured to Glendale

Assurance that additional Southern Pacific train service will be provided Glendale as soon as new time cards can be printed is contained in a communication from F. S. McGinnis, general passenger agent at Los Angeles, to the Chamber of Commerce.

With the establishment of an independent postoffice here the first of the year there seems to be no question in the mind of James M. Rhoades, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, that this city will have practically all trains of both valley and coast route stopping here with the exception of one or two limiteds.

The dimensions of the property are 194 feet on the former street and 125 on the latter.

It is stated that the purchase of the new building site has been made necessary by the growth of the community and the church.

It was thought best to buy now while a suitable location still was available at a nominal figure.

Rev. R. W. Mottern Home Is Scene of Pleasant Gathering

Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Mottern of 211 North Adams street were host and hostess yesterday at a Thanksgiving duck dinner, the "makings" of which were furnished from their own poultry yard. Vari-colored autumn leaves, sent by their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Mottern, from New Jersey, where she was visiting the Drew Seminary, were used for decorations throughout the house. The dining table was centered with a basket of California fruit, intertwined with oak leaves.

The guests were largely former residents of Gettysburg, Pa., and included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and son Stanley of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Daugherty and daughter Louise and Rev. and Mrs. Mottern and son Dorsey.

By the aid of the stereopticon Rev. Mottern closed the very pleasant day by taking his guests over the old familiar landmarks and scenery in and around Gettysburg and its world-famous battlefield. The only break in the harmony of the day was the absence of Miss Elizabeth Mottern, daughter of the host and hostess and who is studying voice in New York city. She was the Thanksgiving guest of Mr. and Mrs. Messinger of Brooklyn, uncle and aunt of Miss Ethel Murphy of Glendale.

There will be two large divisions in the show, one of which will be the "silver specialty" for silver cats only. Mrs. N. Tomlin, New York cat fancier, will judge that division. The other division will be the general show for cats of all kinds and colors. Mrs. Walter Ross, old time cat fancier of Glendale, will be judge of that division. GLENDALE MIDGETS LOSE AT FOOTBALL TO HUNTINGTON

Local Squad Is Beaten for
First Time This Year;
Score Is 20 to 14

By HOWARD M'GILLIS
Sports Editor of The Evening News
Glendale high school's stellar lightweight football team played what proved to be its last gridiron contest of the season on Wednesday afternoon when it was defeated for the first time this year by the Huntington Park Midgets, champions of the Bay league. The game was a semi-final affair for the lightweight championship of the southwest, and was one of the hardest fought and most closely contested prep battles ever staged on the Green and White field, as was evidenced by the 20 to 14 score.

The game was an utter disappointment to the 700 local fans who witnessed the struggle, not so much because Coach Butterfield's warriors came out on the bottom, but because they were beaten by an apparently weaker aggregation. Glendale's superiority began to erode out toward the closing minutes of play, and it was the belief of practically all of the spectators that the result would have been reversed had the game lasted ten minutes longer. The blowing of the final whistle found the Red and Black tankard artists in possession of the oval in a drive that was literally knocking the Huntington Park players off their feet.

Play on Turf Field
In all fairness to the local eleven, which has given all it had throughout the season in the hope of entering the final series, it should be stated that they were subjected to a serious handicap in Wednesday's (Continued on Page 4)

S. BERMAN'S TAILOR SHOP ROBBED OF $5000 IN GOODS

Entrance Is Gained Through
Rear Door; Stock Taken Away in Auto, Belief

Between $3000 and $5000 worth of woollens were stolen early last night from the tailor shop of S. Berman in his new quarters at 410 South Brand boulevard, after the premises had been vacated for the night.

Entry was effected through the rear door. This was broken open with the aid of a jimmy or crowbar. The soft wood near the lock was splintered badly and marks of violence were very evident.

Police are working on the theory that an auto or truck was backed near the back door and tire tracks in the adjoining vacant lot to the south were being studied diligently this morning.

The goods stolen consisted of a number of bolts of expensive woollen cloth stacked in the show cases at the front of the shop. The exact number of them or their exact value are unknown. Mr. Berman stated this morning that there was cloth for at least sixteen newly ordered suits among them.

Discovered by Youth

The robbery was first discovered by Daniel Berman, son of S. Berman, who passed the shop about 8 o'clock last night with a friend, Tom Kennedy, 1296 South Maryland avenue. They were on their way down town.

As he passed his father's shop, the boy peered through the front door according to his custom. Immediately he noticed that some cloth, which lay upon the table in the front room, was uncovered. He remembered that it was his father's practice to cover this material before leaving for the night.

Passing around to the rear of the building, the two boys found the door open. While Tom hailed a passing auto and went after a policeman, Daniel aroused J. F. Fisher, who lives nearby, and they entered the premises. As soon as possible the police station was notified over the telephone. Mr. and Mrs. S. Berman arrived on the scene soon afterwards.

Ira Herbert, chief of the Glendale Patrol & Fire Dispatch, has offered a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of the parties responsible for the burglary. Mr. Berman offers $150 reward for recovery of the goods.

Interrupted at Work

Mr. Berman believes that the thieves had started to remove a number of suits on hangers in the back room when they noticed the bolts of cloth in the front room and decided to take them instead. It is the opinion of several that the crime was interrupted before its completion.

A touring car, thought to have been a Studebaker, or similar car, was noticed on the curb at Lomita avenue about 100 feet from the rear of the tailor shop about 8 o'clock last night by Mr. and Mrs. William Hunter, 197 East Lomita avenue. They passed it on their way to Brand boulevard and noticed that its engine was purring.

Frank Hagerty, 536 West Broadway, was busy in the tailor shop yesterday until after 6 o'clock.

No insurance was carried on the stock, according to Mr. Berman.

NEW OFFICIALS OF ASSOCIATED CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE AT WORK

Chairmen of Various Committees Named; Much Important Business for Valley Outlined

The new officers of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Fernando valley, have assumed their duties and are taking hold of the work with a spirit that, it is predicted, is sure to produce wonderful results. The organization has gotten down to a good, solid working basis and, if appearances are true, are going to be a big factor in the development of the valley.

A wonderful field of opportunity awaits their efforts.

There is, perhaps, no other field in Southern California capable of the expansion possibilities that exist right here in this valley.

This field is not restricted to any one or two subjects. Social, educational, commercial, agricultural—all have their possibilities of expansion. The president of the Associated chambers, Cecil Wilcox of Lankershim, has appointed each of the three vice presidents as chairmen of three principal committees. These chairmen will, in turn, have authority to appoint sub-chairmen for the various committees that will work under their direction.

These Are Chairmen

Dr. W. H. Grundrum of Owensmouth is chairman of the ways and means committee. J. H. Barnum of Burbank is chairman of the social and educational committee. L. Q. Branson of San Fernando is chairman of the city, county and state affairs committee.

The question of securing cheaper freight rates for the valley has been turned over to Dr. Grundrum, who will appoint a committee in the near future to attempt a solution of this problem. It has been pointed out that the existing freight rates are unfair to the valley and any revision that may be secured will be of considerable benefit to the consumers—who invariably "pay the freight."

Committee on Parks

J. H. Barnum will appoint a committee on parks, who will not only make an effort to secure additional recreation grounds for the valley, but will endeavor to secure the assistance of the park commissioners in taking care of Sherman Way.

This highway, touching, as it does, practically all parts of the valley, with proper care, can be developed into one of the most beautiful drive-ways in California. From an advertising standpoint alone this will be of incalculable value to the valley.

L. Q. Branson has an opportunity to cover himself with glory and to receive the undivided blessing of every rancher in the valley. To him has been assigned the duty of securing cheaper water rates during the winter season, the control of noxious weeds, and the building and maintenance of highways.

Improving Local Roads

Perhaps one of the most important questions confronting the highway committee will be the one of securing legislation that will permit the use of decomposed granite, or similar substances, in improving local roads on the same basis that concrete and bitulithic is now used; that is, allowing the use of this cheaper material for minor streets with the privilege of spreading the payments over a term of years.

Another important item will be in connection with the control of heavy truck traffic over the valley roads, and an effort to require the commercial truck operators to pay a proportionate share of the expense of maintenance.

Seeks Higher Licenses

Although California offers to the truck owners the benefit of probably the largest mileage of improved state highways of any state in the union, yet the license fees are declared by many to be ridiculously low. California charges approximately $30 per annum for five ton trucks, while even the little state of Connecticut charges $17.50. Two-ton trucks pay, in California, $8.50 per annum, while the average of thirty-three eastern states is $33.30. It is only right and fair that these truck operators pay their proportionate share of the cost of building and maintenance of the state highways, the Associated Chamber of Commerce believes.

SECRET IS TOLD BY JAMES W. GERARD, EX-AMBASSADOR

Relates Great Alliance as Proposed by Germany at Direction of Emperor

By JAMES W. GERARD

Written for International News Service Copyright, 1921, International News Service.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—After the Normans won the battle of Hastings in 1066 and thereby England, they invaded Wales and chased the native Celts into the fastness of the Welsh mountains. Nearly nine centuries afterwards, Lloyd George, the Welshman, descending from the same fastness of the Welsh mountains, and armed with laws imposing taxes and super taxes, chased the descendants of the Norman Barons from the castles of which they could no longer pay the upkeep.

It will be a pity, indeed, if this sole survivor of the Versailles treaty does not come to the Washington conference. There is a decided tendency to regard him as a clever, almost acrobatic politician. But the man, who, in the face of all England, dared to stand up for the Boers as Burke in another generation did for America, is no time-serving politician.

Conference Marks Time

If he comes to America, after having first satisfactorily settled the Irish question, he will receive a welcome such as has been given to no other foreigner, and you may be sure he will arrive at Washington at the exact time when his powers of compromise will settle what are to be the final agreements.

Meanwhile, the conference is marking time. Possibly, behind closed doors, some progress is being made toward a settlement of the problems of the east—but greater progress would be made if Secretary Hughes' methods were followed and a proposed solution boldly thrown by each nation into the arena of controversy.

Premier Briand made a passionate plea on behalf of France, but when he quotes Ludendorff and Moltke, he quotes men in whom the mass of Germans no longer believe. Moltke beat Napoleon III. Only a few days ago I saw the original of a letter written by Napoleon to James Watson Webb, in whose house Napoleon had found hospitality while an exile in America, in which Napoleon, writing as Emperor, excused the sending of French troops on an imperialistic excursion to Mexico, because the first troops sent having been defeated, "the military honor of France was involved," and he therefore had to dispatch reinforcements.

Hate—Circle of Europe

The same language as that of the Moltke of 1870, of the Ludendorff of today. In spite of the eloquence of Briand, I do not see why America should take part in the hate-circle of Europe and agree at all events to protect France. Then we would be "in for it" indeed.

It is fortunate for France that Briand was not defeated in the voting which took place in the French Chamber of Deputies just before his departure. He represents the broad and reasonable viewpoint in France. His opponents are those who would stir up old antagonism and future wars.

The tactful Jusserand, ambassador of France, can inform him of the mind of America, ably seconded by the officially-sent Casenave, one of the most skillful and best informed of diplomats of Europe, and Stephan Lauzanne, of the great Martin newspaper, keen observer of all things American. It is a pity that Marcel Knecht, so popular here, and who served France so ably in America, is not connected with the delegation.

Arranges for Audience

Even to my knowledge, the German Emperor showed a willingness to enter into an armistice with France. When in May, 1914, I arranged for Colonel House a talk with the German Emperor, the audience was given at the "Schrippen fest," the annual military feast spectacle at Potsdam. After the lunch the colonel, whom Europeans regarded as our best diplomat, talked with the emperor and I with the lovely crown princess. Later I joined the emperor and the colonel and it was then that the emperor proposed an alliance—an alliance, as he termed it, "to keep the peace" and to be composed of what he called the "four civilized powers—France, Great Britain, America and Germany." This is a fact never before published.

I had heard from diplomats of other countries, that from time to time the emperor made similar offers, but that on investigation it was found that the emperor in making the offers did not seem to have the backing of his own official world.

All such propositions, looking to the end of the war, should, nowadays be made openly, so that the great mass of the people who are against war in all countries, including Germany, may throw the weight of their numbers and their influence into the scale of peace.

No one who saw the enthusiasm of the great meeting addressed by Senator Borah in New York can question how Americans feel about making an end of war and its horrors.

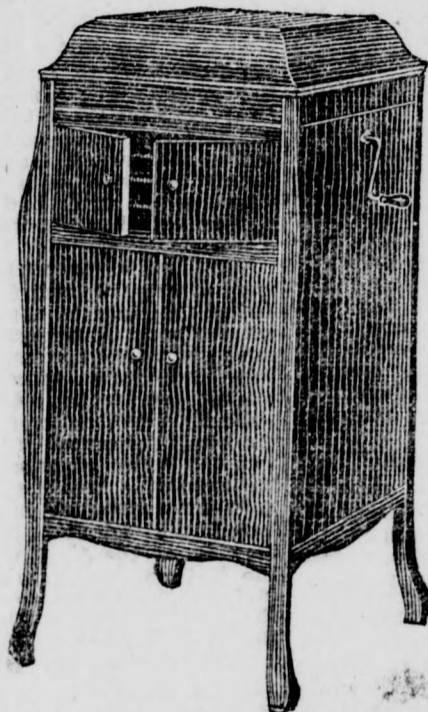

If France should bring about restoration of the part taken of upper Silesia to Germany, should show a desire to help the beaten foe and reduce the indemnity, these acts would be a shield of protection to France far more effective than any army.

LARGEST OVEN IN VAUDEVILLE STAGE GLENDALE GETS TESTED TODAY

Expensive Equipment Put in Harrower Laboratory at 920 East Broadway

The largest oven in Glendale is being tested out today at the Dr. Henry R. Harrower Laboratory, 920 East Broadway. It weighs seven and one-half tons.

This oven is part of the up-to-the-minute equipment utilized at the new quarters of the Harrower Laboratory for making Sani-tate tablets which are well known to the medical profession.

In appearance the oven resembles an immense safe. Its sides are of grided cast iron and they have some semblance of immense waffle irons. The metal in the heavy iron door, which covers the front, is at least two inches thick. An oval window of heavy glass in the door at eye-height permits a view of the interior.

Twenty shelves about three inches apart are stacked within this oven. These are about thirty-five inches wide and forty inches deep. They are hollow and connected so that a current of hot water may pass between them and chambers at each side of the oven to heat it.

Must Be Evaporated

In order to make the ingredients which go into the thirty-five varieties of specially prepared sanitat tablets stick together properly, it is necessary to mix a certain amount of liquid with dry substance. Before the tablets can be compressed this moisture must be evaporated.

At a certain stage in the manufacture the damp pulverized powder is placed in galvanized iron pans about sixteen inches wide, forty inches deep and an inch and a half deep. Each of these pans will hold five pounds and the total capacity of the oven is 200 pounds.

As certain necessary elements of the mixture would be killed at a temperature greater than 100 degrees, it is necessary that this temperature should not be exceeded. This is regulated automatically. When the oven has been heated, a vacuum pump at its side starts operation. As the vapors rise from each pan they are drawn up through an outlet in the roof of the oven. Passing through the cooler air they are condensed and may be observed as water again through a window in the condensation pipe near the vacuum pump.

Total Cost More Than $5000 Formerly a home-made oven was in use at the laboratory. It was necessary to keep this hot for three days and nights in order to accomplish the same result which the new oven does in five hours.

The laboratory oven, however, cost "slightly" more than the usual kitchen oven for it is invoiced at $4000. The freight bill from the east was $1000, and it cost $200 to hire a derrick and get it out of the coal car on a local siding and dragged to its new home.

ONCE MORE WINS LOUISE LOVELY

Presents 'Too Many Crooks' for First Showing at T. D. & L. Theatre

"Too Many Crooks," twenty minutes of smiles and thrills, had its premier showing at the T. D. & L. (Palace Grand) theatre here Thanksgiving. Louise Lovely, all that her name implies and star of the silver sheet, returns to vaudeville in this vehicle and proves that the decision of Orpheum and Keith managers is correct, in that a few years in the films clothe any actor with the greatest possible personality. Six years have elapsed since Miss Lovely was last seen as a stage star.

In "Too Many Crooks" she is ably supported by Wilton Welch, who gives a finished performance to the playlet's personae. The plot smacks of the heavier production "Within the Law," but the comedy lines make the tableau more melodramatic and suitable to variety.

Professional people who were present to "preview" the effort of Miss Lovely were unanimous in assuring the star of a successful season on the stage.

ward street, is in charge of the tablet department of the Harrower Laboratory. Before coming to Glendale he had extensive experience in the laboratory of the United Drug company in Boston, the Parke-Davis laboratory in Detroit and with the Standard Laboratory in Chicago.

R. B. Pierson of La Crescenta assists Mr. Dobbins while the entire manufacturing department is in charge of B. R. Sperry.

CHANGED IN TRANSIT

A teacher asked her pupils to suggest a song to be sung by the class and a patriotic little fellow in the rear called for "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." His voice was so weak that the teacher could not understand and a youngster near him sang out: "He wants 'His Country 'Tis of Him.'"

There are about 15,000 fewer post offices in the United States today than there were 20 years ago.

THE RIGHT SEQUENCE
"A topline quotation in a contemporary runs: 'Tell me my faults and mend your own.' Before starting any other mending, neighbor, suppose we first mend the motto so as to get the proper sequence. Isn't this better: 'Mend your own faults and then tell me mine.'"

Morocco is the largest and most important country in the world that is without a newspaper.

GLENDALE MIDGETS LOSE AT FOOTBALL TO HUNTINGTON

Local Squad Is Beaten for
First Time This Year;

game, due to the fact that they were forced to play in their opponents' backyard before a majority crowd of hostile rooters. Adding this to the fact that the Huntington Park field is covered with turf, which was entirely new to Glendale boys, it can easily be seen that the chances of the locals were diminished at least 30 per cent when they marched on the field.

In connection with the foregoing statements it might be well to mention the fact that during the last two years Glendale teams have played in five championship post-season games in football and baseball, of which but one resulted in a victory for the Red and Black. And, strange to say, the single win was accomplished in the only one of the contests to be staged on the home grounds.

Won League Pennant

In 1919 the football team won the Central league pennant with ease and were then sent to Redlands in the opening round of the playoff, where they were beaten under adverse circumstances. Last year's football squad, which was regarded as the best in the history of the school, was forced to again invade the enemy's territory, the game being held with Pomona on the Pomona college gridiron. In 1920 the baseball team, which was led by the well-known "Lefty" Herman, sailed through in easy fashion to the final game for the championship of Southern California. For some reason the team was sent to San Diego for that important event, where they played in the mammoth sunken stadium. Needless to state, Glendale lost the game.

If the "powers that be" would insist on all championship games being played on a neutral field the local high school auditorium would undoubtedly be well supplied with championship pennants within a few years.

Beaten in First Half

Now to get back to the game—Glendale was played off its feet during the first half of the game, the Huntington Park lads taking advantage of all of the "breaks" and crossing Glendale's goal line twice, once for Coach Butterfield's charges. Foster, the Suburbans' line plunging right halfback, bucked across the line for the first score of the game during the beginning moments of play. Not to be outdone, however, the Glendale backs got together a few minutes later, sending Captain Roberts across on a short end run.

Huntington Park scored their second touchdown of the day just after the opening of the second quarter when Reese, on an end around play, got away from Glendale's secondary defense for a score. The goal was not converted.

The Green and White obtained its third and last touchdown in the beginning of the third period, Bailey crossing the line after a sensational twenty-yard run around left end. From then on they were never extremely dangerous as a scoring machine.

Individual Stars

Glendale was in possession of the ball throughout practically all of the last quarter, scoring once and "almost" twice when McKee dropped a pass from Gingery when but a few feet from the goal line. Butts crossed the line on a wide end run around the left flank.

MASS MEETING TONIGHT

A mass meeting will be held by the Glendale Welfare association at the Broadway school at 7:30 o'clock tonight. High school bonds and the selection of a site will be the topic of discussion with Morris Healey in the chair.

Today We Have Hash
True Culinary Events
They Please to Remain
Corned Beef in History

By Gil A. Cowan

TODAY we have hash. The turkey having been consigned to the inner man yesterday in the usual style with football, motor races and other sports in the afternoon following church services of the morning Thanksgiving day, 1921, undoubtedly will linger in the memories of many for a year or more.

Thankfully there were but few casualties in the southland, although the roads were inclined to be slippery. Even the auto races did not provide a gory thrill or spill. Instead, there were record attendances at the theatres in the afternoons and evenings.

Quite a commendable course of events for a feast day.

Hundreds of homes here boast of tired hosts to dinner parties, who, this morning, cleared up the last of the dishes, made the most of the hash and are thankful that the cranberry sauce wasn't spilled, or the Turkey was tender, etc.

Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners are quite some culinary events, it would seem, to hear the conversation from a kitchen the morning after the day before. It always has been so and likely will continue to the end of time on this continent as long as the Red, White and Blue waves over the United States.

Mails from the north are late today. Your friends in Oregon have been snowbound for the last few days and the dispatches of the day report many homeless, schools, bridges, sawmills and people swept away. Hundreds of motorists on the Columbia river highway are reported "marooned" and the winter has "set in" all over the northwest.

It may be chilly these mornings in Southern California and an occasional fog may dampen the evening's dusk, but the sunshine and showers and winter round flowers provide here one of the best garden spots in the northern half of the western hemisphere.

If this were not true the thousands of people who have come to Southern California for the benefit of its climate would not please to remain.

While hashing over other subjects, it might be well to recount how hash has played a part in politics of this country. History was made at the home of Mark Hanna in Washington Sunday mornings when Maggie Maloney served corned beef hash for breakfasts to the none less known President McKinley and other officials.

On more than one occasion, it is told by Samuel Blythe, that a Hanna breakfast of hash removed the last opposition to bills pending before congress, while diplomats clamored for invitations to this function—dare such a breakfast be so termed?

A legacy of $25,000 has been left the cook by Mr. Hanna, whose will was probated the day before Thanksgiving.

This City Holding Lead in Telephone Development Work

Glendale maintains its leadership in telephone development work, according to a statement appearing in the November number of the Pacific Telephone Magazine now being distributed by Fred Deal, local manager of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

With 17.61 per cent increase since January 1, Glendale leads Anaheim and Tillingham, Or., by safe margins. Auburn, Fullerton and Dinuba are among other California cities where the growth is unusual while Los Angeles leads the larger centers with 9.08 per cent increase.

ENGLAND AND JAPAN TRYING TO FORCE U. S. ALLIANCE

Secretary Hughes Will Win in Spite of Secret Plan, so Official Believes

By ALLAN L. BENSON
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—Great Britain and Japan are attempting to induce Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes to accept the principle of a triple alliance in the Far East.

This is the big business of the secret negotiations now in progress at the arms conference. Secretary Hughes is resisting the overtures of the Balfour and Kato delegations.

A high American government official, who explained that he could not at the present time speak in the open, vouches for the accuracy of this information. He said today:

"Lloyd George's idea of a triple alliance between the United States, Great Britain and Japan for the stabilization and administration of China is now being fought behind the closed doors of the arms conference. Great Britain and Japan at this stage of the conference are avoiding the appearance of trying to drive the United States into the alliance. They are taking the gentler method of showing what will happen if America does not come in."

Says Hughes Can't Win

"The suggestion is made with increased force daily, that if the United States should decline, it would obviously be impossible for Britain or Japan to accept the American proposals with regard to the limitation of naval armaments. Secretary Hughes objects to making an agreement to limit naval armaments contingent upon the willingness of the United States to join England and Japan in the administration of China."

"If Hughes stands by his guns I think he will win without a question. The British and Japanese delegates will not go home even if America should decline to enter a triple alliance. And if they were to do so the Lloyd George government would be out of office before the British delegates could get across the Atlantic."

Secret Marriage Revealed
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—Confirmation of a report that she had been secretly married "some time ago" to Lieut. Commander Reginald Venable of the U. S. S. Arizona of the Pacific fleet, was given here by Fay Bainter, an actress widely known in New York. Friends of the couple said they became acquainted in New York three years ago.

Shops for Union Pacific
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—Confirmation of a report that the Union Pacific will shortly erect large Los Angeles shops to care for its rolling stock in this section, was received by local officials of the road here. The plan includes the removal of the shops of the former Salt Lake route, at Las Vegas, Nev., to this city.

Deny L. A. Lid Is Off
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—Emphatic denial that the "lid is off" in Los Angeles and a statement that every effort is being made to suppress crime and vice was made today by Chief of Police Charles A. Jones and other municipal officials.

The denial came as a result of the charges by Captain John S. Pelletier, executive secretary of the Morals Efficiency commission, that vice was being permitted to flourish in the city under new police arrangements.

Trial of Judge Postponed
PASADENA, Nov. 25.—The trial of United States District Judge Page Morris of Duluth, Minn., on a charge of reckless driving of an automobile, scheduled to have been held here, was postponed indefinitely because of the enforced absence of Judge Morris, who was said to be hearing a federal case at Salt Lake City. The charge grew out of a collision between Judge Morris' car and one being piloted by Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes of Pasadena, in which Mrs. Holmes was slightly hurt.

Three Drowned at Sea
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—Three men were drowned and three rescued when the steamer Harvard, south-bound from San Francisco, struck and cut in two the fishing boat Tano, according to a detailed report of the accident made when the Harvard arrived at San Pedro. The accident happened near the Golden Gate.

The men drowned were Astino Ghio, John Ghio and Stagnaro Filottio. William Silver, captain of the fishing boat, was one of the three saved. The craft was struck in a thick fog. Captain Silver caught a life buoy thrown from the Harvard and when the crew from a boat that had been lowered sought to pick him up he asked them to try to find his comrades first and get him later. This was done.

The other survivors of the accident were A. Zuleta and Luigi Zuleta. The boat was owned by the F. E. Booth company of San Francisco.

QUARANTINE TAKEN OFF

BEET SUGAR MAKES HISTORY IN WEST, REPORT SHOWS

100,000 Tons Now Produced by 106 Factories; Other News About Foodstuffs

By U. S. Press Association.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—
The beet sugar industry of the United States produced more than 100,000 tons of sugar and the 106 factories, 97 of which were in operation in 15 states, paid American farmers more than $3,000,000 for their beets in 1920. "The Beet Sugar Industry in the United States," is a bulletin issued by the department of agriculture, and it says that almost any fertile soil capable of producing good yields of other crops will, if properly handled, produce good sugar beets. This statement, however, is restricted by considerations of climate, moisture and topography as related to the question of producing enough beets of the requisite sugar content within reasonable hauling distance to maintain a sugar-beet factory.

The bulletin reviews the history of the sugar beet industry from the first mill, built in 1870 at Alvarado, Calif.; analyzes soil, climate and topographic requirements; and deals at length with the necessary equipment, best methods of planting and cultivation;
the important relation of the sugar beet to the live stock industry;
the management of parallel and rotating crops; the labor problem; insect and disease enemies of sugar beets; and the business of selling beets to the sugar manufacturers.

"The successful production of sugar beets on any farm depends to a great extent upon the temperament of the farmer and upon his attitude toward the production of this crop," says the bulletin, adding that the man who handles cows, especially dairy cows, is more inclined to take up the growing of such an intensive crop as sugar beets and is more apt to succeed in this line than the grain or forage crop man.

London Market Glutted.
The London market is glutted, according to cable to the United States Department of Agriculture from the American Agricultural Commissioner at London, dated October 21. Prices have slumped and cold storages are filled. Approximately 1,000,000 carcasses of lamb and mutton are being held in refrigerated ships in the Thames. The widespread drop in prices is said to be due to poverty. The British government is holding approximately 2,240,000 pounds of mutton. The supplies of home-killed mutton are plentiful, due to the high prices of feedstuffs.
The dispatches go into further details, and say that the wholesale price of Scotch beef has decreased 4.8 cents per pound, and of chilled beef, 8 cents, since September 21.
New Zealand lamb is selling at 14.4 cents per pound wholesale, a drop of 4.8 cents in one month. Heavy supplies of meat are reported to be afloat.

Changes in Food Prices.
The U. S. Department of Labor reports that during the month from September 15 to October 15, there was a slight decrease in food prices in seven American cities. These cities are Manchester, New Haven, Portland, Me.; Richmond, Washington, and Little Rock. There was no change in Baltimore, Kansas City and Philadelphia.
For the year period, the report shows that there was a decrease of 26 per cent in Memphis; 24 per cent in Baltimore, Little Rock, New Haven and St. Paul; 23 per cent in Richmond, Kansas City, Manchester, Omaha, Philadelphia and Portland, Maine.

A. E. F. Veteran Says Ohio Roads Are Best

MARTINS FERRY—James Wilson, who toured France and Belgium in 1917 and 1918 with one of Persh-ing's parties, says, regardless of the fact that European roads are supposed to be so wonderful, the very best road over which he ever traveled is in Ohio.
The war veteran, who now operates a laundry, drove to Dayton. He declared the road from Columbus to Springfield is superior to any he saw in Europe. It is tarbound macadam which, he said, furnishes smoothest riding with a maximum of traction, therefore reducing tire wear and gasoline consumption.
While "doing" Europe with the A.
E. F. Wilson said, he realized the reasons why roads over there stand up so well. Citizens, he said, never are in such a hurry as those of America and, hence, do not drive so rapidly. Also, heavy trucks are not hurried over the roads in the rapid manner, nor so frequently, as roads are punished in America.

Every noble life leaves the fiber of it interwoven with the work of the world.

Swiss Colonies to Be Established in Canada

WINNIPEG, Man.—Swiss colonies are to be established in Canada.
Mountain-loving folk of the little republic are to become prairie farmers.
The first group will arrive with the establishment of a silk plant in Toronto by Swiss capital. This industry will spread to other points and serve as a means of ready employment for the immigrants, most of whom will later take up farming.

There has never been a tide of immigration from Switzerland to the American continent. Contentment was a predominating characteristic before the wave of post-war unrest and depression. Now large numbers of the industrious folks are turning hopeful faces toward Canada. The influx is expected to be large.
Experience has shown that the Swiss are most desirable immigrants.
Their natural industry makes them builders. Their quick adoption of western manners makes assimilation easy.

Of Canada's total population the Swiss comprise less than 10 per cent.
Practically all are prosperous farmers. The forefathers of many were pioneers. The first Swiss settlers came over just a hundred years ago.

SOVIET MAN CLAIMS ARE LIFE FOR JAPANESE

Will Give Up All Else But One Thing, Is Belief of Official From Japan

By WEBSTER K. NOLAN
Written for International News Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—
"Japan will relinquish all her claims in China with the exception of the South Manchurian railway. To give up her claims on that railway would mean 'hari-kari' to Japan."

This statement was made here by a Japanese official close to the workings of the Japanese delegates to the arms conference. The official stated that Japan is willing to concede the ten principles proposed by China and to agree to any further statement of principles on the part of China, with the single exception of Japan's south Manchurian claims.

Means Life to Japan

That Japan will find substantiating causes for holding her South Manchurian claims after giving up all else was declared by the official in the expectancy that Great Britain will give up all her claims in China, with the exception of Hong Kong.

"South Manchuria means life itself to Japan. To surrender her claims there, legitimately secured by treaties, would be equivalent to committing 'hari-kari,' the Japanese diplomatic observer declared. He added that Japan in China and retaining her claims in South Manchuria that she is committing herself to the cause of peace in the Far East and meeting the wishes of the powers gathered about the Washington table.

should a breach or default be made in the performance of any obligation secured by said deed of trust, then the holder or holders of any note or notes secured thereby might declare all sums secured thereby immediately due and payable and should the time for the payment of said sums should expire and the trust-deed deliver a written declaration of default thereunder and demand for sale and delivery of said property, or some part thereof is situated upon record in the office of the Recorder of the County wherein said property, or some part thereof is situated, and of such breach and of election to cause said property to be sold to satisfy said obligations, said trust deed further providing that after three months should have elapsed following said declaration of said notice of default without demand on said trustor should sell said property in such parcels and at such times and places as they shall deem best to accomplish the objects of said trust, having first given notice of the time and place of such sale or sales in the manner and for a time not less than that required by law for sales of real property upon execution, which trust deed further provided that said trustees might at any time, without notice, upon written request of the holder or holders of the note or notes secured by said trust deed re-convey portions of said property without affecting the personal liability of any person for the payment of the indebtedness mentioned as secured thereby, or the effect of said deed of trust upon the remainder of said property, and

Whereas, said Mattie L. Shorb has made default in the payment of the notes, principal and interest, and indebtedness hereinafter mentioned, partially set out, and said California Bank, the holder of said notes and said indebtedness, has declared all sums secured by said trust deed immediately due and payable and did on July 16, 1921, execute and deliver to said trusttees a written declaration of default under said trust deed and demand for sale and did thereafter and on August 5, 1921, record in the office of the Recorder of the County of Los Angeles wherein said property or some part thereof is situated, a notice of such breach and of its election to cause said property to be sold to satisfy said obligations and has demanded that said trustees shall sell the premises granted by said deed of trust to accomplish the objects of the trusts therein expressed.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the undersigned, by virtue of the authority in them vested, as trustees, will sell at public auction to States gold coin, on Saturday, the 10th

Twisted Cords

Running through the telephone cord are a number of delicate, flexible wires.

"Kinks" are formed when this cord is allowed to become twisted, and some of these wires may be bent or broken.

This means a "noisy" telephone line. You cannot hear or be heard as well. In fact, a twisted cord may cause a complete interruption of your

Keeping the telephone cord straight will give you greater satisfaction in the

JAPAN IS LEADING DOUBLE LIFE, SO
OFFICIAL SAYS

Younger Generation Has Taken
Up Occidental Modes; Old
Folk Scared of Jazz

By PAUL H. EGOLF
Written for International News Service
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—Japan is leading a double life.

Such is the opinion of O. Toyoda, imperial minister of railways of the island empire, who has been a visitor in Philadelphia. But the double life has no sinister meaning—rather a humorous one, for it is the product of the never-ending battle between the traditions of Nippon and the practicalities of the Occident.

Even old man High Cost of Living has invaded the Orient in quaint fashion, according to Mr. Toyoda, selecting the kimono as the prime object of his attack. Once the regulation dress of every respectable Japanese, the kimono is being rapidly driven out of the islands by the American ready-made suit, which, in addition to being cheaper than the native garment, allows the wearer to work unhindered by loose-flowing folds.

Even the children are now being clothed in rompers, overalls and other Yankee clothing, which gives the maximum amount of freedom in play, combined with ease of washing.

Prefer Chairs to Mats

"But it is in other phases of home life that the clash between the old and the new is being most severely felt," said Mr. Toyoda. "Many of the younger generation have gone to school and been engaged in business in Europe and America and become accustomed while there to sitting in chairs, thereby acquiring an aversion to return to the Oriental fashion of squatting on a mat."

"As the younger person returning to Nippon will not squat, so it is equally out of the question for the older people to sit up straight in high backed chairs and preside at tables. The solution has been found in furnishing rooms to suit both generations, which, although it separates the family at social functions, is more suitable to the needs of the persons involved. This makes for 'jazz parties' in one part of the house and dignified recreation in the other."

"The changes wrought by contact with the Occident have affected the family meal, as well, making it now practically impossible for a Japanese household to dine together."

Young Japs Like Roast Beef

"During their trips to Europe and America the younger generation have acquired a fondness for roast beef, mashed potatoes, French pastry and other articles of diet incompatible with the frugal Japanese diet of rice, egg and chicken combinations. Even tea, that firmly rooted institution of Japanese life, is being threatened by the introduction of coffee or more exciting beverages. Again, this leads to a split in the home and necessitates the cook leading a 'double life,' unless the family is wealthy enough to employ two chefs to meet the tastes of the older folk and the younger gourmands."

"In table service the conflict is again in evidence. Chopsticks for the elder; knives, forks and spoons for the younger members are seen, as well as a variety of dishes and tableware. Soup is now consumed to two melodies in different languages. Not only has the 'double life' problem reached a point where it becomes serious in its social and economic aspect, but it forms one of the chief items in the upward march of the cost of living in the land of the Rising Sun."

A BUMPER WHEAT CROP

REGINA, Sask.—A train thirteen hundred miles long would be required to haul Saskatchewan's 1921 wheat crop. The Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture reports a crop of approximately 175,000,000 bushels. If this were placed in forty-foot cars, each holding a thousand bushels, the train would extend from Chicago to Salt Lake City.

Wealth Fails to Get This Heiress
Away From Ranch

Mrs. John A. Gould

Written for International News Service
BILLINGS, Mont., Nov. 25.—In a small tarpaper covered shack in the north end of the city Mrs. John A. Gould ("Tex Hayes"), heiress to half a million dollars, is dreaming of the ranch she intends buying near Billings.

"That's all I want," she told a newspaper man.

About forty years ago Mrs. Gould's grandfather, Matt Hayes, started in ranching near Amarillo, Tex., and he gradually increased his holdings until the Lazy-Z ranch was one of the largest in the country. His holdings covered fifteen or twenty miles at least, that being the distance she often rode, and then she did not cover the whole territory, Mrs. Gould said.

Grandfather Hayes died some years ago, and his son and Mrs. Gould's mother were killed in an automobile accident in Fort Worth in 1910. Recently oil was struck on the ranch.

Mrs. Gould, then Alice Hayes, left home when a young girl, and, while she knew relatives were advertising for her four years ago, she did not return.

$500,000 Waiting for Her

While in a second hand store buying furnishings for her small home a friend called her attention to a newspaper story in which her brother was making inquiries for her. The story said that $500,000 was waiting for her.

"What do you intend doing with the money?" the newspaper man asked.

"I intend to buy a ranch near Billings," was the quick reply. "The only place I would be happy would be on a ranch."

"Do you plan taking a trip, say, to Europe?"

"The United States is good enough for me," she answered, emphatically. "But I might go to Bonnie Scotland. 'Jack' (her husband) came from Scotland, and my mother was a 'school m'arm' in Scotland. She took me there when I was about 11 years old. But," an afterthought, "I have to get the 'jack' first."

Was Wounded Twice

"We have been trying to get compensation for Jack," (Jack served overseas and was wounded twice in the Argonne, incidentally, he was a member of Major Whittlesby's Lost Battalion).

"And I'm going up to the clean up squad to try to get in, anyway," put in the former soldier.

Wherever cattleman meet Mrs. Gould is known, but to them she is known as "Tex Hayes." She has lived on ranches all over the western states and has competed in rodeos in Pendleton, Ore.; Calgary, Alta.; Cheyenne, Wyo.; Miles City, Mont.; Fort Worth, Tex., and the Flathead reservation.

Included in the many trophies she has won for riding is a set of spurs presented by the late Theodore Roosevelt. These she still has in her possession, but she has given most of the nine or ten saddles and bridles she won to comrades of the range.

"I have also worked in Yellowstone Park, 'riding for the dudes,'" said Mrs. Gould. "I used to teach dudes with one eyeglass and old ladies how to ride. Some of them had to get on the horses with step-ladders. They all liked me, though, and I got all kinds of tips."

"I have always worked hard on ranches, breaking horses and riding. I have ridden horses since I could get into the saddle, and it is the only life for me."

An attractive, capable looking woman, Mrs. Gould is now 28 years old. She has several sisters in California and Chicago. She has not seen any of them for eighteen years or more.

Jack Gould, the husband, is taking a vocational course here. He wants to be a plumber, his wife said. He, like Tex Hayes, has worked on nearly every ranch in Montana. They were married on March 13, 1920. Gould enlisted here, went across with the Sunshine Division of California, and was transferred to the Seventy-seventh division of New York.

PROBLEMS OF CHINA 'THREE MUSKETEERS' ARE CONSIDERED BY DELEGATES GIVEN FOR LAST TIME TONIGHT

Four General Principles as Proposed by Elihu Root Is Subject for Debate Douglas Fairbanks Surprises With New Ability; Story Is Very Well Presented

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—Publicity again gave way to secrecy when the "big nine" went back into secret session behind the closed doors of the Pan-American building to consider the case of China.

The immediate business in hand was the discussion of the four general principles proposed by Elihu Root and accepted without reservation by all of the powers and the manner in which these principles are to be applied to existing Chinese problems.

The principles pledge the powers: First—To respect the territorial and administrative integrity of China. Second—To give China full and unhampered opportunity to work out her own government. Third—To respect the open door and equal economic opportunity for all, and Fourth—To refrain from taking advantage of present chaotic conditions in China to seek special privileges.

Some Confusion Exists
The four principles are considerably broader and more general than were the ten principles proposed by China herself last week and the Chinese accepted Root's program with some disappointment. They had been hopeful that the powers would accept China's own program for her rehabilitation, and some confusion exists in the minds of the Chinese delegates as to just what Root's substitution means. They accepted, however, without protest.

Acceptance of the Root principles brings the statesmen squarely up against the task of determining just what constitutes the China of today. Rigid application of the third principle would deny, for instance, Japan's claims to "special interests" in Shantung, Manchuria and part of Mongolia, three "lost" provinces which the Chinese came to Washington in frank hopes of getting back. The third principle pledges the powers "to use their influence for the purpose of effectually establishing and maintaining the principle of equal opportunity for the commerce and industry of all nations throughout the territory of China."

Map Greatly Changed
The question that arises under the interpretation of this principle is whether the China of fifty years ago or the China of today is to be taken as a basis for consideration. The map of China has changed much in fifty years, as the powers kept "nibbling" at her territory through outright annexation and the less bold, but equally efficacious method of "spheres of influence."

There is reason to believe that the Root proposals are part of the "Hughes program" for the settlement of far eastern matters. The real work has now started on adjustments of China's intricate and complicated affairs, with the acceptance by the powers of the Root program as the foundation on which to build.

While the principal delegates went at the Chinese problem, the naval experts continued their technical discussion of the ship program. Beyond the general statement that "progress is being made" there is no indication that the opposition of Japan being relegated to a poor third in the naval strength of the world is in any way disappearing.

"The Three Musketeers" will be seen for the last time tonight at the Glendale Theatre after playing to record Thanksgiving throngs. If you haven't seen the latest Douglas Fairbanks masterpiece, ask your neighbors and they will tell you to go.

The story, based on Alexander Dumas' greatest novel, has to do with the plot of Cardinal Richelieu to bring about the downfall of Queen Anne of Austria who with King Louis XIII ruled France in the Seventeenth Century. Being the power behind the throne, Cardinal Richelieu was jealous of the influence exerted by the Queen. In order to discredit the Queen, the Cardinal conspired to involve her in an affair with the Duke of Buckingham, prime minister of England.

His plot was frustrated through the heroic work of D'Artagnan and his loyal friends, the three Musketeers, in the most amazing series of adventures, duels and thrills that have ever been pictured.

Shows New Ability

Douglas Fairbanks' work as D'Artagnan entitles him to a position on the top rung of the ladder of fame. Those who have had their doubts as to Mr. Fairbanks' ability as an actor of dramatic roles will quickly discard these doubts when they watch his presentation of this character. He is more restrained, by far more dramatic than in anything he has ever done before. His love-making is of the sort that rings true; it is neither silly nor overdone. The scene in which he comes to the Queen exhausted but with the jewels he was sent to recover is one of the most dramatic and realistic ever seen on either stage or screen.

Every role in this feature is ideally filled. Marguerite De La Motte's work in the part of Constance, the little seamstress who was the Queen's closest companion, and who was also in love with the intrepid and resourceful D'Artagnan, is one of the most naive interpretations this clever little actress has ever given.

Tomorrow matinee and evening Best Levey, coast-to-coast circuit vaudeville, will be the featured attraction.

Bride Seeks Divorce; in 3-Day Honeymoon

CHARLESTON, Mo.—After three days of married life Mrs. John W. Sexton has filed suit for divorce from Rev. John W. Sexton, Princeton graduate and pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church here. Mrs. Sexton charges incompatibility.

"It was a very unpleasant dream," she said of her marriage, "and I wish to forget it."

"I cannot understand it," the pastor declares. "My wife has appeared happy since our marriage and I know I was."

Members of the board of elders of the church asked Rev. Sexton for a statement regarding the affair. The statement was furnished.

"We will stick by him," was the verdict, "until he is tried. It would be contrary to Biblical teachings to condemn him now."

Fleas Have Fleas, So Englishman Discovers

LONDON—A new "flea's flea" with an adventurous history was described for the first time at a meeting of the Royal Microscopical society.

The discoverer, F. Martin Duncan, explained that it started life in the underground nest of the bumble bee. These nests are raided by moles, and during the assault the little mites attach themselves by means of suckers to the mole's parasite, the "great mole's flea."

These tiny pin-points of life are obscure cousins to the scorpion, and it is believed that they travel on the mole-flea until they come across a certain underground fungus where they feed and mature.

Are You An Artistic Dancer?

Would you like to learn the latest artistic steps of the dance?

A small select dancing club is under consideration. If enough refined people in Glendale are interested, it will be directed by Adeline Leone McAdam, principal of the McAdam Normal School of Society and Professional Dancing under the direction of L. E. Behmer.

She has coached many professional dancers and has instructed many dancing teachers and positively refuses to waste time upon couples whose sole desire is to embrace and wiggle in public.

Pupils taught by Miss McAdam have appeared in programs and professional engagements at the following prominent places in the vicinity: Orpheum, Pantages, Majestic, Morosco, Grauman's, Auditorium, Cinderella Roof Garden, Ambassador, Maryland, Raymond, Alexandria, Alpine Tavern, Virginia Hotel of Long Beach, Los Angeles Athletic Club, Jonathan Club, California Club, Ebell Club, and Shakespeare Club of Pasadena.

By special invitation Miss McAdam has agreed to teach a class of adults in Glendale provided they are sincere in their appreciation of correct dancing.

Her fee at her Los Angeles studio ranges from $100 to $500 a course. The fee here will be very low—only $6 for each couple or $4 for each individual a month.

If organized, this class will meet every Wednesday night at the K. of P. Hall, 109 West Park avenue. Only couples will be permitted to join it who are congenial with each other.

If you are interested, please send your name and address at once to Ralph Hassell, Glendale Typewriter Exchange, 107 West Broadway. Phone Glendale 1168 for further information.

SHOW FAITH, SAYS REV. CALDERWOOD AT UNION MEET

FEATURE ACTS FOR VAUDEVILLE BILL ARE PROMISED

Many Reasons to Give Thanks Says Pastor at Services Held on Thanksgiving

"If a great faith helped our fathers do their work well, a similar faith will help us with our new tasks," declared the Rev. C. M. Calderwood, pastor of the Congregational church and president of the Glendale Ministerial union, yesterday morning in the first Methodist church in a union Thanksgiving service.

A roll call of states was a feature of interest to the assembly. Other ministers of the city participated in the program of prayer and song thanking the Almighty for His beneficence.

"Pilgrims and Puritans were men of God," stated Rev. Calderwood. "All of these men borrowed their greatness from God. They believed that they were under divine guidance and that no power could pluck them from His hand. That faith always makes men brave."

"As our fathers had better beliefs than their fathers so we should hold better beliefs than they. We have a new and better Bible; scholarship, historical and literary insight have added to it. We have seen new applications of Christ's principles of conduct. The years and their events are burning Christ's words more deeply into our hearts. Science is consuming the midnight oil in a search for more of God's eternal laws. A larger and more closely analyzed past gives us more revelations from the Almighty."

Should Have More Faith
"With our enlarged beliefs and new information we need not have less but we should have more faith than our fathers. Satisfaction with things as they are is not the faith of our fathers. Irreverence, indifference, irreligion and disobedience is not the faith of our fathers. Vision and hope and trust in God are the elements of our fathers' faith that we need today. We can go forward and achieve if we have the faith of our fathers."

Progressive Pioneers
"We cannot in justice call either the Pilgrims or Puritans reactionary. They were progressive pioneers. They loved progress so much that they were willing to pay a great price for it. They left England for religious opportunities in Holland; they left Holland for the freedom of religious development in America."

"They retained the great essentials of religion. They ordered all their conduct down to the last details in accordance with the will of God. They were convinced that loyalty to the church and the observance of the Sabbath could not be left out of a better religious and social life. They believed in the Bible, but their minds were not closed to a larger and better understanding of it."

"They were strict in their rules of conduct, but they were believers in religious liberty and fearless in their search for the truth. The Pilgrims were not free from imperfections and limitations, but these were only a part of their age. Their ideals have been incorporated into our form of government and their spirit has shaped to a large extent the religious life of our people."

Express Their Thanks
"The Pilgrims set a landmark in their thankfulness for temporal mercies. In their poverty they thanked God for His gifts. They had not the physical comforts they would have had if they had remained in England, yet they thanked God for His blessings. Are we thankful for our blessings?"

"Let us not destroy the landmark of progress, religious liberty and love for the truth that the fathers set up. Let us today, thank God for His goodness to us. Thank Him for the food that satisfies our hunger and the comfortable homes that shelter us. Let us thank God for the boundless plains and the abundant harvests that make the valleys laugh with corn."

"For the fathers who came to our shores and set up landmarks here for us; for their firm faith that established this republic; for the patriots whose valor and courage have maintained that faith until this hour, let us give thanks."

"For the ties of family, the joys of comradeship and the pleasures of friendship, let us give thanks."

Much Better World
"For a better world, for a world that, under the rule of God and following the teachings of Jesus, will be a much better world, for the prospects of a brighter and better tomorrow, let us give thanks."

"Thank God for a larger and better international spirit and that so many people are considering themselves their brother's keepers and that we are carrying religion into our national and international affairs."

"For the attempts to bring in an era of peace and for the desire to beat swords into plowshares, let us give thanks."

"For books that inform, for schools that teach and for churches and the Bible that inspire us and direct us, let us give thanks."

Scientists claim the earth has been revolving around the sun for 8,000,000,000 years. Well, it ought to know the way by this time.

Vaudeville in the true sense of the word is coming to the T. D. & L. theatre today and tomorrow. In bringing this show to Glendale Melklejohn & Dunn have arranged their program especially for the holiday week and every act that appears on this bill is a headliner.

There are many comedians on the vaudeville stage today, but there are few that can compare with Lionel Paris when it comes to really pleasing an audience. Mr. Paris has been in this country only a short time, having recently returned from Europe, where he was the star of many music hall productions for a number of seasons.

From quite another part of the country comes Texas Walker and his company who present their novel act, "Out West." Trick rope spinning is only one of the many things that go to make up this unusual act.

For Laughing Only

West and Boyd have a vehicle which was built for laughing purposes only. "Who Wants a Ford?" is what they call it and when they have finished with their discussion of the "lowly flivver" there is still a doubt in the minds of the audience as to the merits of this well-known car. However, there is no doubt left by this talented pair as to their ability to please.

"Old Dad" is the title of Mildred Harris Chaplin's latest photoplay and it is said to be one of the best she has ever made for the screen. This picture will be shown today and tomorrow in conjunction with the four acts of high class vaudeville. Popular prices will prevail for this show as usual.

GEORGE M. ANDERSON CONSTRUCTS OUTLAW VIOLIN; TONE EXCEPTIONAL

Violates Number of Well Defined Principles, But He Produces Instrument Money Cannot Buy

According to all the principles of tone pronounced was even better than that of a $500 violin in the shop. "For six months after I started this violin," said Mr. Anderson, "I did not have the inclination to finish it. Then I seemed to get the inspiration one day and completed the work. The instrument is a Stradivarius model built on a Paganini Guarnerius frame, with a seven-eighths arch, a top one-fifth of an inch thick, and a back one-half an inch in thickness. These dimensions are contrary to all the principles laid down by violin makers, and I was told many times while working on this one, it would be no good."

Uses His Fingers

"Instead of using calipers for gauging the thickness of the wood, I used my fingers. In the construction of violins it must be remembered that the wood of the back should be formed and graduated in thickness to produce the tone, 'Re,' while the top should produce 'Do.' That is why maple wood is generally used for the back and spruce for the top to give the tone difference. When the 'F' holes are cut through the top, the tone is destroyed, and the bass bar which is glued to the under side of the top restores this tone."

It's Something Different

This, states Mr. Anderson, is a deviation from all the principles of violin making known in history. But, Mr. Anderson adds, the deviation does not end there. The violin is built with a seven-eighths of an inch arch, with its top one-fifth of an inch thick, and its back one-half an inch. That it produces a tone at all is a mystery, says Vern Isom, who demonstrated the instrument at the shop recently, and that the tone is clear and sweet, he says, is wonderful. The seven-eighths of an inch arch places this violin in the class attempted by Anthony Stradivarius, which, according to the verdict of Sovart, who tested out the instruments of Stradivarius, was a failure. He said:

"In the highly-elevated instrument the tone is feeble and very often thin and piercing."

He Gets Inspiration

Before a fair-sized audience in the shop the other afternoon, Vern Isom played Drdla's "Souvenir" and Fillmore's "Etude" (Whirlwind) and the

Many 'Lodge' Meetings Are Cause of Divorce

ATLANTA, Ga.—E. L. Kelpen belonged to one lodge and used, for a long time, the excuse to go to "lodge meeting" for the purpose of calling on another woman, it is alleged in a petition for divorce filed here by Mrs. Mary E. Kelpen, who asserts her husband has been calling three evenings a week on Mrs. Mae Barnes for the past four years.

Her petition alleges that Kelpen, realizing it difficult to be attending the meetings of but one lodge so often, joined two other organizations, and when she offered to accompany him in their car to one of the alleged meetings he threatened "to throw her out of the car if she even mentioned such a thing again."

Kelpen is a grocer, and the petition alleges Mrs. Barnes became a customer of the store, Kelpen becoming enamored of her.

Mrs. Kelpen is also suing Mrs. Barnes for $25,000 damages for alleged alienation of affections.

Judge Pendleton granted Mrs. Kelpen an order restraining her husband from molesting her.

It knocks about 90 per cent of the conceit out of a girl when she shows a young man a photograph of herself and he fails to ask her for it.

Suggests Betterment of Pacific Electric Service in Glendale

Editor The Evening News:—If you will permit me space in your valuable paper, I wish to say, regarding a proposed addition to the Pacific Electric car line, that the people in the northwest section of Glendale need a car line and the Pacific Electric company need the cash they would derive from the line.

I would suggest that a line branch off from the P. E. at Magnolia (in old Tropic), to Central avenue, thence north to Colorado, thence west to Pacific avenue, thence north to Kenneth Road, thence westerly to Grand View, thence north to Tenth street, thence westerly on Tenth on through the foothill part of Burbank.

This route would take care of a lot of the pupils that will attend the high school proposed to be located on the Grey tract, as well as to be so nice for those wanting to visit the park, also a way to and from Los Angeles that is needed very badly for the northwest section of Glendale which will soon be the most thickly settled portion. Yours for more service of the Pacific Electric, A. B. CLEMENT, 1321 North Pacific Ave.

Suggestions are being received by The Glendale Evening News as to betterment of the Pacific Electric service. If YOU have any suggestions, send them to this office.

NEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH BUILDING TO BE COMPLETE IN ALL DETAILS

Membership Growing Rapidly and Congregation Will Move Into Elaborate Home by Easter

Optimism is the keynote of Rev. Clifford A. Cole's attitude toward the new Christian church on the northeast corner of Louise and Harvard streets which is being built for his congregation.

"We have had 110 additions to the church in the past year in spite of its handicap for lack of room," he remarked recently. "When we get into the new church, the membership can be increased at least 50 per cent in a year. Many people, who were members of this denomination in the east, are just waiting until we get into our new building before joining us. We have had to turn people away now for the past six months.

"We are not trying to outdo any other denomination. We are just facing the situation as it is. We have grown 200 per cent in the past three years. Our plans have been under way for a year and a half. Originally we were expecting to build a year ago this summer, but some of the members of the church thought that we would save money by waiting—it was necessary for us to double the plans."

In Time for Easter

The contract for the new church was let to W. G. Boyd at a most favorable time according to Rev. Cole, who feels that it was placed at a time when certain materials were lower in price than before or since.

The congregation anticipates moving into the new church about the first of April in time for the next Easter service.

"The excavation is about finished," declared Rev. Cole. "The forms are being put in for the cement foundation. They ought to be finished in a couple of weeks. Then they will begin work immediately upon the superstructure."

The entire cost of everything in connection with the new classical edifice will be about $75,000. It will be frame with a white plaster exterior marked to imitate stone.

Preparing for future

Another new building even larger than the one now under construction is contemplated on the site of the old building at some future time. When the need arises, the old church, which has been moved to the north of the lot on Louise, will be removed entirely and a new building substituted.

The main entrance to the new church will be on Colorado street, although there will be an entrance also on Louise street.

The auditorium, which will be in ivory finish and equipped with mahogany pews, will seat about 450 on the first floor and about 450 on the balcony, or a total of 900. The capacity of the old church is about 250. Rev. Cole is quite anxious that the new auditorium should be quite cozy in order that the congregation may become as friendly as possible. All the seats on the balcony will face the pulpit.

To Have Special Baptistry

A specially constructed baptistry will be built of tile and have a plate glass front. During baptism this may be illuminated by a spotlight from the roof.

The choir platform, seating about thirty, will be on the opposite side of the pulpit from the baptistry.

The installation of a concealed organ is contemplated.

The pastor's study containing a special altar for marriage ceremonies, and church offices will open directly off the church foyer.

A ventilating system will change the air in the church every fifteen minutes. This will be heated in winter and pre-cooled in summer so that the interior will always be of uniform temperature.

The Sunday school of the Christian church now "runs about 300." It has been necessary to pack these scholars into the old church and bungalow like sardines. The Sunday school capacity of the new church will be about a thousand. Provisions are being made for five assembly rooms besides about fifty smaller class rooms.

For Various Departments

The basement under the new church will house the juniors and intermediate classes. Sliding doors will make it possible to turn the entire floor into a social room similar to the banquet room of the Methodist church. It will be equipped with a movable platform for entertainments.

The kitchen, serving room and heating apparatus will be placed in a basement being excavated under the old church building.

Primary and beginners' departments will be located in the old church building. This will be remodeled as soon as it is possible to hold church services in the new auditorium.

The nursery will adjoin the women's missionary room on the first floor of the church.

Five class rooms for the senior department will be located on the mezzanine floor off a landing between the first floor and balcony.

On each side of the church auditorium will be a large room for a men's class and a large room for a women's class.

For several weeks services have been held in the bungalow at the rear of the church. Rev. Cole announced that the congregation would be able, probably, to move into the old church again in two weeks.

H. H. Bevis Isn't a Booster, But He's Glendale Enthusiast

"I resent being referred to as a booster," said H. H. Bevis, Glendale enthusiast, in a recent interview. "I do not like the word. I always associate it with those who boost rents or prices."

Mr. Bevis came to Glendale within a week after arriving in California from New York. With a keen vision he foresaw the possibilities and future growth of this most favorably located city, which is being verified every day.

Immediately after coming to Glendale Mr. Bevis purchased his home on Riverdale drive, since which time he has invested extensively in real estate in various parts of the city.

When asked as to his views on the future of Glendale, he continued:

"It is difficult to comprehend what $4,000,000 in new buildings in one year really means to a city of 22,000 inhabitants. With the impetus given to building, I predict a population of 50,000 within five years; that there will be few vacant lots left on Brand, Broadway, San Fernando and Colorado boulevards; that Glendale, Burbank and Eagle Rock will be built solidly together.

"With the assured expansion and growth of Glendale, I consider real estate, well selected, as one of the wisest investments. During the past six months I have purchased twenty more pieces of property, and every one has proven a good investment. I have disposed of a large number of them, and I will sell many others I own at a small profit. I believe in quick sales and small profits. An owner who places an exorbitant price upon his property retards the progress of a community and invites stagnation.

"Activity is the life of any business. It is much better for a property to change hands five times a year and each make a 10 per cent profit than for one owner to hold it four years and make 50 per cent profit. You would not think much of a merchant who placed a prohibitive price on his goods, in the belief that he would get his price in a year."

When questioned as to the sale of the acre corner at Riverdale and Pacific, Mr. Bevis said:

"I acquired an opinion on this property a short time ago because I believed it to be the finest corner of its size and price in all Glendale. I had already visualized a stucco bungalow court on either street with a duplex apartment on the corner, but alas! Along came a woman with a covetous eye. To see it was to want it, hence the sale. The consideration was close to five figures.

"In conclusion, my advice to anyone would be—invest in Glendale, but invest wisely."

From New York to the Cape of Good Hope it is 10,985 miles.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 25.—Employees of the Swift & company, packing plant at a meeting voted to accept the wage cut of 10 per cent proposed by the company to take effect November 28. It was believed that this action will be followed by employees of the other "big five" packing plants here accepting the proposed wage reductions.

Radical Is Under Arrest

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—John Scully, considered by the police one of the worst radicals of Italy, is under arrest here today for staging a demonstration in the Congress hotel in an attempt to see Generalissimo Armando Vitorio Diaz, supreme commander of the Italian armies.

The police believe the man intended to harm General Diaz. It was found he had rented rooms next to the General's suite in the hotel. Scully is an American citizen reared in Palermo, Italy.

5 Cent Fares Are Expected

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—The Illinois Commerce commission, it was expected today, will issue an order restoring the 5-cent fare on surface line street cars in Chicago. The present surface line fare is 8 cents. Supreme court upheld the right of the Commerce commission to fix fares.

Reduction of the fares may be followed by a wage cut and that, in turn, by a strike.

10 years old, are being rushed into the United States as war refugees by organizations of their race in this country. Mrs. F. J. Macnish of Chicago, a member of the Women's Federated clubs, told the House immigration committee.

"These children are coming in groups of fifty," she said. "They are being assisted by organizations in this country, as well as abroad. The physical comforts at Ellis Island, N. Y., are not adapted to such children and to mothers."

Representative Rakér, California, criticized the activities of organizations in assisting children into the United States who needed care and assistance.

Soon to Liberate Prisoners

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—President Harding intends soon to liberate many so-called political prisoners, now serving varying terms in penitentiaries, for violation of war-time laws, it was announced at the White House.

It was expressly stated, however, that those prisoners who had been convicted of overt acts against the United States would not be included in the general opening of prison doors.

The president has asked the Department of Justice for the complete digest of the cases of the so-called political prisoners. He will study each of them, it was stated, and afterward he will issue a proclamation proclaiming amnesty for those whose offenses were not "overt acts" against the United States.

Wears Gown of White

The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin with duchess and rose point lace. She wore a cap of real lace and wedding veil, caught with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Helen Beach, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and was attired in a gown of peacock blue canton crepe and silver had and slippers and carried a bouquet of pink roses. J. T. Beach, brother of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony, which was attended by relatives and intimate friends of the bride, a reception was held, following which Mr. and Mrs. Wellman departed on a honeymoon trip. They have secured an apartment on South Brand boulevard, where they will be at home to their friends in about ten days.

High School Graduate

Mrs. Wellman has been a resident of Glendale for the past ten years, making her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Beach, and is a graduate from Glendale Union high school. She is a member of the "Lucky Thirteen" club of girls and also of the Glendale Music club.

Mrs. Wellman was the guest of honor at many pre-nuptial affairs and showers.

Mr. Wellman is now connected with the Brand boulevard branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings bank.

RUTH MACBRIDE HOSTESS

Miss Ruth K. MacBride of 737 South Maryland avenue entertained as her dinner guests Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Findlay, Mrs. Hucksins, Mrs. Katherine Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Cory and daughter, Margaret Lou, and Mr. and Mrs. Rivers of Los Angeles.

Passion Play Is Lecture Topic at Methodist Church

Realistic illustrations from the Passion Play are promised to an assembly at the First Methodist church at the Sunday night services by Dr. Harvey Hadlock of Washington, who found Anton Lang, Christus of the play, after the world war.

As a correspondent for American papers, Dr. Hadlock, who was a member of the A. E. F., made his way through Switzerland, Austria and Germany into Oberammergau. His special mission was to learn whether or not the reports current during the war that Anton Lang had been killed at the front were true. After much difficulty in crossing the German border, Dr. Hadlock succeeded in reaching his destination. He found Mr. Lang alive and preparing for the next Passion Play. He learned that the famous actor had not been in the war but engaged in Red Cross work among the needy of his home town. The famous Passion Play will be presented at Oberammergau next spring and will continue through the summer. The actors are training already. Anton Lang was the Christus in 1900 and 1910. Dr. Hadlock, besides describing his journey, will describe the play as he saw it before the war and as it will be given next year.

"OLD DAD"
In the Mirror
at Midnight

Reflected in her mirror Daphne saw the boy at the window. He leaped through and right at that moment the sour-faced principal of the seminary walked in. Though the breath of scandal was flavored only with ham sandwiches and ice cream, it sent her home to Old Dad in disgrace.
